

What makes PBB different

What makes us different from other manufacturers is our absolute dedication to effective skincare with the right concentrations and right combinations of natural ingredients that have a dramatic effect of moisturising and rejuvenating skin. You can tell that we have higher concentrations of natural ingredients than most brands from the rich aroma and creamy texture. We use no artificial fragrances in our products and only use preservatives that are approved by the EU